Tour de Coeur - Sunday, September 7, 2008

The seventh annual Tour de Coeur will include popular family rides from 1 -22 miles , starting at Higgens Point and continuing along the Centennial Trail and beautiful Lake Coeur d'Alene. The popular long ride (33 miles) will start at Higgens Point then proceed on a beautiful, challenging, paved route. Riders have the option to ride two laps of this route...keep in mind, one participant called this ride "a 33 mile ride that rides like 60"! Registration includes festival activities, food, raffles, massage and entertainmnet at Higgens Point following the ride.
